

Radio ORANGE 94.0: Participate in Connecting (ex)You Traineeship Programme

Are you excited about gaining first-hand knowledge and experience in radio journalism? Are you interested in learning about community radio, European identity and civic participation? Are you eager to attend international radio trainings and produce radio programmes in cooperation with students from Macedonia and Bosnia and Herzegovina?

We offer 4 Traineeships

Community Radio ORANGE 94.0 offers a two-year traineeship opportunity for 4 students based in Vienna, interested in radio production and community media. The trainees will attend 4 international training sessions as well as a number of webinars. The international training sessions will take place in Vienna, Skopje and Sarajevo. Radio ORANGE 94.0 will further organise personal coaching and mentoring, conducted by experienced trainers who will be supervising participants' progress throughout the entire programme.

By participating in the Connecting (ex)You Traineeship Programme, the trainees will gain knowledge in both technical and editorial aspects of radio journalism. In cooperation with trainees from Bosnia and Herzegovina and Macedonia they will also produce several radio programmes. The participants will have an excellent opportunity to expand their media, intercultural, communication and social competences, as well as explore their creativity and create new professional networks.

Are you interested in exploring new cultures? Are you eager to broaden your horizons in a multicultural setting? If your reply is positive, apply for our programme by 10th of May!
